

Spring 2017

President's Message: Check Out Our Agenda for the AWFS Fair

The Woodwork Career Alliance will have a large presence at the 2017 AWFS Fair in Las Vegas as we continue celebrating our 10th anniversary. Not only will we be exhibiting at the show, we will offer seven Accredited Skill Evaluator Training sessions and participate in three of the AWFS Fair's College of Woodworking Knowledge workshops.

Jefferson Millwork Structures Training Around WCA Skill Standards

Jefferson Millwork & Design Inc. demonstrates how a woodworking company can leverage the Woodwork Career Alliance Skill Standards not only as a training tool, but as the backbone of an incentive system to reward and retain its employees.

Exit Interview with AWFS Education Director Nancy Fister

Funny, I didn't know that Nancy Fister is a trained woodworker and plays the ukulele. But I do know that the Nancy Fister I first met 15 years ago was an invaluable asset to the Association of Woodworking & Furnishings Suppliers (AWFS) and to industry.

Quickscrews Celebrates 30th Anniversary; Sponsors WCA EDUcation Poster

It's a happy and fortuitous coincidence that Quickscrews International Corp. and the Woodwork Career Alliance of North America (WCA) are each celebrating milestone anniversaries this year.
