President's Message: We've Got a Lot to Talk About at AWFS Fair

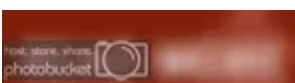

As the opening of AWFS Fair in Las Vegas draws upon us, please remember to stop by our booth 9648! Let us show you how WCA's Woodworking Skill Standards can help improve your school woodworking or company training program.

SkillsUSA Shines National Spotlight on Career and Technical Education

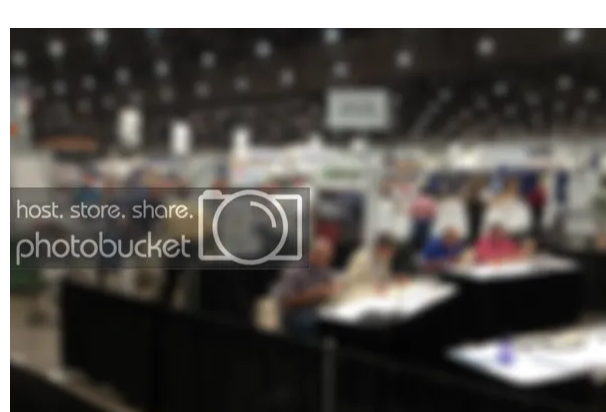

Sixty-four students, including 44 state high school winners and 20 state college winners, competed in the 2017 Cabinetmaking competition of the 53rd Annual SkillsUSA National Leadership Conference held June 19-23 in Louisville, KY.

Closing the Skills Gap: A Call to Action

Kent Gilchrist is not an evangelist; he's a woodworker. Still he is passionate about woodworking education and training and fervent in his belief that all sectors of the industry must come together to meet the long-standing challenge of developing and growing a skilled work force.

Woodwork Career Alliance to Highlight Workforce Development in Vegas

The Woodwork Career Alliance of North America (WCA), celebrating its 10th anniversary as the champion of woodworking skill standards, will present a well-rounded collection of workforce development tools and strategies at the AWFS Fair July 19-22 in Las Vegas.
