

Winter 2018

President's Message: New Year, New Industry Support

The Woodwork Career Alliance is starting 2018 – and its second decade – with a big boost from the North American Building Material Distribution Association (NBMDA) and 14 of its members. They have all signed on as Gold INDUstry Supporter Sponsors!

Meet Mick McGowan: The WCA's Canadian Connection

Veteran cabinetmaker and college woodworking instructor is working to launch WCA EDUCation programs in Calgary high schools. Mick McGowan is leading the charge to spark Canadian interest and involvement with the Woodwork Career Alliance of North America (WCA).

Building a Sturdy Woodworking Industry-Technical Education Partnership

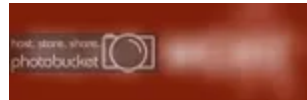

Lutz Woodworks of Wylie, TX, has the distinction of being the first company to sign on as an INDUstry Supporter of the Woodwork Career Alliance of North America (WCA).

NBMDA Sets the Gold Standard of New WCA Sponsorship Program

The North American Building Material Distribution Association (NBMDA) and 14 of its members have signed on as Gold Sponsors of the Woodwork Career Alliance of North America

(WCA). Their sponsorships will benefit WCA high school and postsecondary woodworking programs in the United States and Canada. Sponsorship proceeds also will help the WCA advance its industry outreach activities.
